Taiga Adventure Camp Comes to Yellowknife and Fort Simpson

April 27, 2010, YELLOWKNIFE NT – Taiga Adventure Camp seeks adventurous young women to register for the 2010 camp season.

Registration is open and available online at www.taigacamp.com.

Taiga Adventure Camp is a summertime leadership and outdoor adventure experience for girls, ages 11-17, from ALL communities in the Northwest Territories.

Campers live outdoors, learn leadership skills, make new friends and discover their many talents. Activities include swimming and canoeing, bush-skills, music, crafts, and storytelling.

Taiga Adventure Camp seeks to empower young women to achieve personal fulfillment through new experiences, self-reflection, increased awareness and building healthy relationships. Our programming is designed to inspire, motivate, and create tangible life skills that make lasting impressions on young women as they transition from the teen years into adulthood.

There will be three land camps located outside of Yellowknife, Northwest Territories:
