YWCA NWT Launches Call for Artists to Paint Mural at Gotłi Kò

YELLOWKNIFE (January 26, 2026) YWCA NWT invites NWT-based Indigenous artists or artist teams to submit an expression of interest to paint a wall mural located at the inside entrance of Gotłi Kò transitional family housing building and office in Yellowknife.

To commemorate YWCA NWT 60th anniversary in 2026 and as part of YWCA NWT's commitment to Truth and Reconciliation, this mural will help visually tell the story of the YWCA's work providing services to women and families, promote healing and interconnection, bringing people together and create an inclusive, culturally safe and welcoming space in the entry of Gotłi Kò.

Submissions should include an artist bio, samples of previous work, cost estimates, and the artist's general vision for discussion with the artist selection committee. Full submission requirements, including surface information and space dimensions, are available on the YWCA NWT website.

Submissions will be reviewed by an independent selection panel and select one artist (or artist team) for the final commission.

Deadline for submissions: February 20, 2026.
